Paris, June 11th 2018,

Art-Trope INTERSECTION exhibition attracted more than 700 people in 3 days

From June 7th to 10th 2018

Espace Commines - 17 rue Commines - 75003 Paris

ART-TROPE, New Generation of Artists Agency presented its exhibition "INTERSECTION" which totaled more than 700 visitors in 3 days.

On June 7th 2018, almost 350 people came to discover the 10 Art-Trope Artists selected on the occasion of the opening reception.

The exhibition "INTERSECTION" proposes to revive the connections between Colors and B&W (Black and White). Like ancient Greeks, the idea is to see colors as a continuous line in which B&W are both ends. As a result, colors and B&W embody two languages that the presented Artists use to express their own artistic sensitivity.

From painting to photography and sculpture the Artworks echo one another to tell together "adventures in colors" like Photographer Rémy Donnadiou used to say. ART-TROPE invites its Artists to present their pictorial language to unveil the INTERSECTION between colors and B&W. Through the interplay of artistic correspondences, the exhibition opens new perspectives on the contact point between different ways of expression that finally nothing opposes.
