

Press release

Paris, July 17th 2018,

Close to 2200 visitors at the exhibition “Ask Yourself” by Photographer Guillaume Dimanche at the Rencontres de la Photographie in Arles

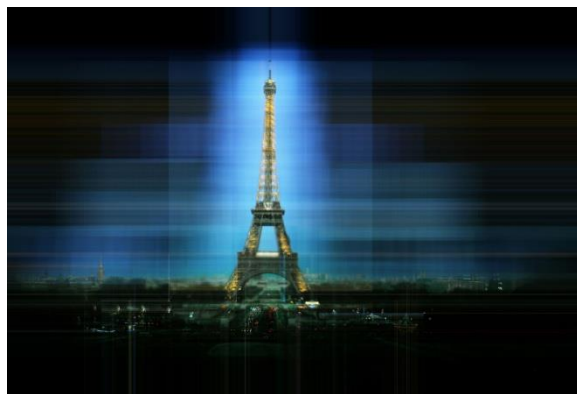

From July 1st to 15th 2018
13 rue Calade – 13200 Arles

From July 1st to 15th 2018, Photographer Guillaume Dimanche presented the exhibition “Ask Yourself” as part of the Voies-Off festival program during the Rencontres de la Photographie in Arles. According to Hervé Schiavetti, the Mayor of the city of Arles, the “Voies-Off festival became an essential player of the photography scene in Arles”. Among the 173 presented exhibitions, “Ask Yourself” was visited by close to 2200 people.

The exhibition presents a set of photographs that questions our contemporary world and our relationship to new technologies. “In this exhibition I present a questioning about contemporary society including new technologies and the space in which human beings position themselves reacting to it” explains Guillaume Dimanche.

The Artwork “Eiffel Tower V2” was sold to an American Collector and will soon go to San Francisco area.

Eiffel Tower V2, 41in x 27in, 2018 © Guillaume Dimanche

Additional information about Guillaume Dimanche

- Art-Trope Artist profile
- Dedicated article including the catalog of the exhibition “Ask Yourself”
- Article dedicated to the overview of the exhibition “Ask Yourself”

About ART-TROPE

ART-TROPE is the New Generation of Artists Agency that offers Artists the possibility to be professionally guided worldwide. Art-Trope enables them to access quality services dedicated to their needs in order to improve and accelerate their career opportunities on the long-term.

Contact

Julien Lafaye

press@art-trope.com

+33 7 81 66 90 84

ART | TROPE © 2018 – ALL RIGHTS RESERVED

ART-TROPE SAS – 37 rue des Mathurins – 75008 Paris – France

Commercial and Companies Registry under the number 820 804 185 R.C.S. Paris – Social Capital of €5 142,86.

www.art-trope.com – contact@art-trope.com